

Content and Grammar	Skills
Talk about activities with opinions using connectives, sequencing words, key irregular verbs and present regular verbs.            Ask about activities using questions words.            Describe other people using comparatives and word order.            Explain your daily routine using reflexive verbs.            Mention nationalities.	Writing longer passages including opinions, justifications, more complex vocabulary and a variety of tenses            Dictation
Places in town linked to activities using present and near future tense, prepositions, sequencing words and time expressions.            Inviting and declining invitations using modal verbs: querer, poder, deber.            Time.            Opinions on free time using idioms.            Somebody else's opinions using he/she registers.            Say you agree/disagree.            Saying what you did last weekend using preterite tense.	Understanding longer texts(listening &amp; reading) including mixed tenses and unknown vocabulary            Reading and listening for gist            Reading and listening for more detail Longer dialogues or presentations using a variety of tenses and more complex structures. GCSE style: Role play            GCSE style: Photo            Asking questions
Talk about clothes + colour using demonstrative adjectives and frequency words.            Talking about your school uniform.            Opinions on clothing using comparatives and superlatives.            Saying what you normally wear, wore recently and are going to wear for a special occasion using past, present and future tenses and time expressions.	Translation of sentences and short paragraphs from English to French and French to English
Talking about food and mealtimes combining present, past and future and time expressions.            Shopping for food using high numbers for euros and cents plus expressions of quantity.            Restaurant dialogues using the polite you, usted.            Likes and dislikes linked to food
Talking about holidays: usual holidays, past holidays and future holidays using three tenses. Asking questions about your holidays using the preterite.            Accommodation.            Modes of transport.            Activities during your holidays using key irregular verbs: ir, hacer and tener in the preterite.            Ideal holidays using conditional tense.
Justify your opinion on a place using comparatives and superlatives and combining past, present and future.            Saying what you can do in a town using se puede / se pueden.            Talking about different types of shops using ser/estar.            Asking and giving directions in town            talking about how to improve your town using conditional tense.	